Other Considerations:

1. Are you willing to help with fundraisers to help your child attend 4-H Camp? Yes/No

If yes, that's great. If not, please explain why. (Failure to assist with the fundraisers may negate your child's application for assistance for 4- H Camp.)

Fundraising efforts are vital, there are several possible fundraising opportunities that will need volunteers. Listed are several possibilities. Feel free to reach out to the Pike County Extension office for more information on how you can help.

Hillbilly Days Parking April 23rd – 25th: Annual fundraiser during Hillbilly Days. Consists of allowing cars to park at the Extension office for a fee.

School Fairs April 8th-15th: Annual fair to showcase potential State Fair projects. Booths are set up at each fair day to sell fundraising items.

Tractor Supply Clover Days Fundraiser in August: Tables set up at local Tractor Supply stores to take up any donations to camp. Dates TBA

2. "Thank you" notes are an important way to gain donations for future 4-H Camps. So, 4-H Campers, please sign the pledge below if you are willing to write a thank you note:

I, _____ a 4-H Camper agree to write a letter to the 4-H donors and return it to the following address right after 4-H Camp. Please include what you learn and what you like about 4-H Camp.

Return the thank you note to: Pike County 4-H, 148 Trivette Drive, Pikeville, KY 4150
